ST. LOUIS COUNTY NOTES

Notes from St. Louis County: The weather is improving; the crops are looking well; the schools are in session.

WOMAN'S DESIRE TO RAISE CHICKENS CAUSES BREACH BETWEEN NEIGHBORS.

All trouble began when Mrs. Charles Kuss turned fowls loose in her yard. Her neighbors, the Palmettos, objected to the chickens in their yard, and a breach was caused between the two families.

The Palmettos claimed that the chickens were a nuisance, and they demanded that Mrs. Kuss remove them. Mrs. Kuss refused, and the matter went to court.

The court ruled in favor of the Palmettos, and Mrs. Kuss was ordered to remove the chickens. Mrs. Kuss refused to do so, and the matter was referred to a jury.

The jury found in favor of the Palmettos, and Mrs. Kuss was ordered to pay damages to them. Mrs. Kuss refused to pay, and the matter was referred to a higher court.

A Full Dollar's Worth Free Can any Ailing one Refuse?

I will pay outright for your first dollar bottle of Dr. Shoor's Restorative. I ask no deposit—no promise. You take no risk—you pay nothing, either now or later. The dollar bottle is free to those who have not tried my remedy.

I want no reference—no security. The poor have the same opportunity as the rich. To one and all I say, "Merely write and ask." I will send you an order on your druggist. He will give you free the full dollar package.

I can afford to offer a full dollar's worth free because mine is no ordinary remedy. Ordinary remedies treat symptoms. My remedy treats the cause that produces the symptoms. Symptom treatment must be kept up forever—as long as the cause is there. My treatment may be stopped as soon as it has removed the cause, for that is always the end of trouble.

There is no mystery—no miracle. I can explain my treatment to you as easily as I can tell you why cold freezes water.

Inside Nerves!

Only one out of every 50 has perfect health. Of the 49 sick ones, some are bed-ridden, some are half sick, and some are only dull and listless. But most of the sickness comes from a common cause. The nerves are weak. Not the nerves you ordinarily think about—the nerves that govern your movements and your thoughts.

But the nerves that, unguided and unwarmed, light and day, keep your heart in motion—control your digestive apparatus—regulate your liver—operate your kidneys.

These are the nerves that wear out and break down. It does no good to treat the ailing organ—the rebellious stomach—the d-ranged kidneys. They are not to blame. But go back to the nerves that control them. There you will find the seat of the trouble.

There is nothing new about this—nothing any physician would dispute. But it remained for Dr. Shoor to apply this knowledge—to put it in practical use. Dr. Shoor's Restorative is the result of a quarter century of endeavor along this line. It does not dose the organ or deplete the body—but it goes to the cause—the nerves—the inside nerve—the power nerve—and builds it up and strengthens it and makes it well.

For Stomach Troubles

The stomach is controlled by a delicate nerve called the solar plexus. This nerve is the seat of the solar plexus. If this nerve is weak, the stomach is weak. Dr. Shoor's Restorative builds up the solar plexus and strengthens the stomach.

For Kidney Troubles

The kidneys are the blood filters. They are operated solely by the inside nerves. The branch of the solar plexus that controls the kidneys is called the renal plexus. If this nerve is weak, the kidneys are weak. Dr. Shoor's Restorative builds up the renal plexus and strengthens the kidneys.

For Heart Trouble

Your heart beats more than ten thousand times a day. And every heart beat is an impulse of the inside nerve branch called the cardiac plexus. The heart is a muscle, but it is the nerve that makes the muscle do the work. An irregular or weak heart is, almost in every instance, the direct result of a weak or irregular nerve—inside nerve. To cure heart trouble, restore the nerve to normal.

Dr. Shoor's Restorative will restore the cardiac plexus, just as it restores the solar plexus and the renal plexus. For all are equal parts of the great inside nerve system—the power nerves—the master nerves.

Many Ailments—One Cause

I have called these the inside nerves for simplicity's sake. Their usual name is the "sympathetic" nerves. Physicians call them by this name because they are so closely allied to the brain and the spinal cord. The result is that when one branch is allowed to become impaired, the others weaken. That is why one kind of sickness leads into another. That is why cases become "complicated." For this delicate nerve is the most sensitive part of the human system.

Does this explain to you some of the uncertainty of medicine? Is it not a good reason to your mind why other kinds of treatment may have failed? Don't you see that THIS IS NEW in medicine? That this is NOT the mere patchwork of a stimulant—the mere soothing of a nerve? Don't you see that it goes right to the root of the trouble and eradicates the cause?

But I do not ask you to take a single statement of mine—I do not ask you to believe a word I say until you have tried my medicine in your own home at my expense absolutely! Could I offer you a full dollar's worth free if there were any misrepresentation? Could I let you go to your druggist and say, "Give me a bottle of Dr. Shoor's Restorative, please?" Could I let you have it on my shelves if my medicine were not U.S.P.M.? Could I AFFORD to do this if I were not reasonably SURE that my medicine will help you?

Simply Write Nite.

The first free bottle may be enough to effect a cure—but I do not promise that. Nor do I fear a loss of possible profit if it does. For such a test will surely convince the cured one beyond doubt, or dispute, or disbelief, that every word I say is true.

The offer is open to everyone, everywhere. But you must write ME for the free dollar bottle. I will then direct you to one that does. He will send it down to you from his stock as freely as though your dollar lay before him. Write for the offer to-day. The offer may not remain open. I will send you the book you ask for besides. It is free. It will help you to understand your case. What more can I do to convince you of my interest—of my sincerity?

For free order for Book on Druggists, a full dollar bottle you Book 2 on the Heart, Book 3 on the Kidneys, Book 4 on the Stomach, Book 5 on the Liver, Book 6 on the Lungs, Book 7 on the Nerves, Book 8 on the Blood, Book 9 on the Skin, Book 10 on the Bones, Book 11 on the Muscles, Book 12 on the Joints, Book 13 on the Senses, Book 14 on the Mind, Book 15 on the Soul.

Dr. Shoor's Restorative is a full dollar's worth free. Can any ailing one refuse?

Dr. Shoor's Restorative is a full dollar's worth free. Can any ailing one refuse?

And why heat melts ice. Nor do I claim a discovery. For every detail of my treatment is based on truths so fundamental that none can deny them. And every ingredient of my medicine is as old as the hills. I simply applied the truths and combined the ingredients into a remedy that is practically certain. The paragraphs below will show you the reason why.

But my years of patient experiment will avail you nothing if you do not accept my offer. For facts and reason and even belief will not cure. Only the remedy can do that.

So now I have made this offer. I disregard the evidence. I lay aside the fact that mine is the largest medical practice in the world, and come to you as a stranger. I ask you to believe no word that I say till you have proven it for yourself. I offer to give you outright a full dollar's worth of Dr. Shoor's Restorative. No one else has ever tried so hard to remove every possible cause for doubt. It is the utmost my unbounded confidence can suggest. It is open and frank and fair. It is the supreme test of my limitless belief.
